Under Rule 347 (iii) of B.C.S.R. Vol. I, Supervisors and Overseers who maintain a pony in the interest of Govt. Works are allowed to draw a horse allowance during leave provided that no extra expense is thereby caused to Govt. and provided further that the continued maintenance of the means of conveyance which they maintain while on duty is certified.

2. The Maistries and Karkuns are also allowed conveyance allowance of Rs. 10, if they maintain a horse in the interest of Govt. Works, vide G.O. No. 255/36-B(II), dt. the 21-8-45. However, Rule 347 of B.C.S.R. Vol. I does not allow a similar concession to maintain a horse during leave to Maistries and Karkuns as in the case of Supervisors and Overseers. The S.E., N.G.C., therefore, requests Govt. to make the concession applicable to Maistries and Karkuns on the same basis on which it is granted to Supervisors and overseers. The proposal may be agreed to in u.o. consultation with the F.D.
